

North Pole Special Delivery

Dear _____

It is wonderful to hear how very well behaved you have been this year, remember to keep it up because Christmas is right around the corner.

We are so busy here at the North Pole preparing for the big day. The elves and I have been up late every night making lots of toys in the workshop for the good children all over the world. This year is going to be a great one because we have a lot of new toys that we haven't made before, and if you continue to behave well, you can expect something special from me.

I hope you have a wonderful time with your family and friends this Christmas, and don't forget to leave a little treat out for the reindeers and I on Christmas Eve.

With lots of love
